

Nikki Letendre is a New Jersey based artist and owner of Nikki Jax Nine, a Unique art Boutique. She enjoys working with paper collage/mixed media and creating functional art products.

Each handmade collage art original is created from beautiful found and collected images and reimagined into something more. All products and accessories are created by transforming original designs into functional art for you and your home.

Her work is uniquely created from a love of color, pattern and contrast combined with character, grace and beauty.
