

NHArts Exposure 2018

To Those Who Serve

Exhibition of the Photographic Image August 4th – 26th

Application

Located between New York and Philadelphia and 20 minutes from Princeton, New Jersey, New Hope remains a major arts destination. On any given summer weekend as many as 2000 visitors travel to the cosmopolitan river side community to enjoy its antiques, ART and fine dining.

Exhibition Details:

Heroism and service mean something different to all of us. Patriotism is expressed in many ways. First responders arrive at disasters, foreign and domestic, to serve in times of need. Teachers give our children the best education they can. Citizens exercise freedom to march in support of what they believe. Our military, veterans and those currently serving, risk their own lives for service. The picture is even bigger than America's vast and beautiful landscape.

Please Note: The exhibition is open to photographers working in all media. Use of vintage photographs or vernacular * photographs is encouraged. Images taken or obtained by a late family member or veteran will be accepted, however proper photo credit must be noted. For example if your loved one obtained negatives from a liberated camp in WWII, this will be accepted 'John Doe on behalf of Jane Doe'. If the photographer is unknown then credit should note 'unknown photographer'. Please do not hesitate to contact us with questions. Appropriation or use of copyrighted images will not be accepted.

* Vernacular photographs are types of accidental art, often by amateur photographers. More...
